

Colorblind
Oshima Brothers

Early rising
Sleeping on the floor
We woke up to a strike of lightning
And stumbled out into the storm

Searching for a new horizon
We were talking 'til the dawn
And I been living in the past it's frightening
Looking back on being young

And I been seeing nothing but in black and white
There ain't no color around

Then you grab my hand and pull me fast forward in time
You made my sky expand when I was seeing colorblind

Clouds colliding
Mountains all around
But we both know that it's hard to dive in Without knowing where we'll land

Cliffside climbing
Leave the trail we're on
And talking with you felt like harmonizing
Showing me where I belong

And I been seeing nothing but in black and white
There ain't no color around

Then you grab my hand and pull me fast forward in time
You made my sky expand when I was seeing colorblind

Anywhere I wander, I want you by my side
Like walking with a brother, these hills are where we hide

Then you grab my hand and pull me fast forward in time
You made my sky expand when I was seeing colorblind
And then you grab my hand and pull me fast forward in time
You made my sky expand when I was seeing colorblind
