

Hearts as Full as the Moon
Oshima Brothers

Moonlight in the Cumberland skies
Tall pines towering close
Bonfire by the river side in our eyes
Sparks and everyone knows

In the fire light
Reach for a hand and dance so close to desire
Stars are bright
Hearts as full as the moon tonight

Midnight singing sweet in our heads
Tiptoe away from the light
Waltzing in the whispering river bed
Spinning 'til just out of sight

In the fire light
Reach for a hand and dance so close to desire
Stars are bright
Hearts as full as the moon tonight

In the fire light
Reach for a hand and dance so close to desire
Stars are bright
Hearts as full as the moon tonight
