

Lost at Sea
Oshima Brothers

Let your body be like the ocean tide
Let it rise and fall when you're breathing by my side
Let your heartbeat race like you ran a mile
When you need a hand to hold reach for mine

Hold me, hold me I'm an island in this lonely blue
And I am lost at sea

I'll be deep down under the tumbling tide
When the world reflects in your tidal ocean eyes
And I'm holding all of my breath inside
Cause you steal it easy from me every time

Hold me, hold me I'm an island in this lonely blue
And I am lost at sea

Like a drop of wine in a pool of water
Paint the scarlet skies darker every hour
When I am lost at sea

Hold me, hold me I'm an island in this lonely blue
Hold me, hold me I'm an island in this lonely blue
And I am lost at sea
